EXPLANATORY NOTES.

On the 1st day of February, 1955, The Bank of Toronto and The Dominion Bank were amalgamated under the provisions of the Bank Act and became The Toronto-Dominion Bank. A pension fund for the benefit of the officers and employees of The Dominion Bank and their widows and children was maintained in The Pension Fund Society of the Dominion Bank. A fund for the benefit of the officers and employees of The Bank of Toronto and their families was maintained in the hands of certain officers of that Bank as trustees. With effect the 1st day of November, 1955, by a resolution of the Board of Directors of The Toronto-Dominion Bank, the fund formerly maintained in the hands of certain officers of The Bank of Toronto was vested in "The Pension Fund Society of The Dominion Bank". By the same resolution the two former funds were merged, with effect the 1st day of November, 1955. The said resolution was passed pursuant to the Amalgamation Agreement made between the two Banks, which Amalgamation Agreement was duly approved by the Governor-in-Council under the Provisions of the Bank Act.
